

Auditions for Young Artists to perform with
The Channel Islands Chamber Orchestra
11th Annual Young Artists Series
January-February 2021

With the objective of connecting our youth to live performance of classical music, The Channel Islands Chamber Orchestra announces auditions for young artists to perform as soloist with the orchestra in its 11th Annual Young Artists Series in January-February 2021. The auditions will be structured as follows:

ELIGIBILITY:

1. Applicant shall reside or attend school in Ventura County.
2. Applicant shall be 21 years (25 years for vocalists) or younger on 15 January 2021.
3. Applicant shall provide a reference recommending her or him for the auditions. The reference shall be a music teacher, music coach or other leader in the musical community.
4. Applicants who performed with the orchestra at the Young Artists Series in January 2020 are not eligible to audition again this year but may do so in future years.

AUDITION SCHEDULE:

1. 15 June 2020: Due date for submittal of application and YouTube link to a recording.
2. 1 July 2020: Finalists selected and announced
3. August 2020: Finalists' live audition
4. August 2020: Final selections announced

ADDITIONAL DETAILS:

After the live audition, several finalists will be selected to perform a movement of a concerto, an aria or art song or one or more other types/pieces of music appropriate for performance with a chamber orchestra. An application with a shareable YouTube link of the applicant performing a music selection will be submitted for the first round of auditions. The submitted recording should present a piece of music the applicant has ready now and is intended for performance with the orchestra. The submitted selection must be queued and readily accessible on the recording. The application should list at least two additional pieces from which final selection* can be made by the Artistic Director. The live auditions will be held in August 2020 at the First United Methodist Church, 1338 East Santa Clara Street, Ventura CA 93001. The Annual Young Artists Series in January-February 2021 may be presented twice, once in Camarillo and once in Ventura.

Please submit all application materials by email to downbeatplus@gmail.com by 11:59 PM on 15 June 2020.

* Final selections will include considerations of rental availability and cost and suitability of the piece for performance with the orchestra. The audition process and Young Artists Series are subject to changes. For any questions or further information, contact Dr. Liu at downbeatplus@gmail.com.

AUDITION APPLICATION

Last Name:

First Name(s):

Address (street, city, zip):

Applicant's other contact information (phone, email):

School:

Date of Birth:

Instrument or Voice Category:

YouTube Link – Applicant's Music Presentation:

Teacher:

Teacher contact information (phone, email):

Proposed concertos (movement), arias, art songs or other piece(s) of music. Indicate name(s) and other details of piece(s), composer(s), etc. Note preference for auditioning with piece proposed for concert. We need the edition for orchestral purposes, the arranger and the publisher. Please make sure that the edition from which they are performing has the appropriate orchestral accompaniment. IMSLP public domain.

Repertoire studied or performed by the applicant within the last two years:

Signature (applicant).
Date of application:

Signature (teacher or other reference).

Signature (parent/guardian).

Please submit this application along with a brief bio and recommendation to:
downbeatplus@gmail.com
Dr. KuanFen Liu, Artistic Director